PLACES OF INTEREST AROUND:

There are several points of tourist interest in Amritsar besides the Golden temple which is so close to the Villa.

THE GOLDEN TEMPLE:

The Golden Temple is a gurdwara located in the city of Amritsar, Punjab, India. It is the preeminent spiritual site of Sikhism. The temple is earthly representation of Milk Ocean of Vishnu/Hari. The word Harmandir means Hari's House.

JALIANWALA BAGH:

This is a historic garden and 'memorial of national importance' close to the Golden Temple complex in Amritsar, Punjab, India, preserved in the memory of those wounded and killed in the Jallianwala Bagh Massacre that occurred on the site on the festival of Baisakhi, 13 April 1919

GOBINDGARH FORT:

This is a historic military fort located in the centre of the city of Amritsar in the Indian state of Punjab. The Fort was until recently occupied by the army but was opened to the public from 10 February 2017

GURUDWARA SHAHEED GANJ SAHIB:

This was built in homage to Sikh martyr Baba Deep Singh, with a stone where his severed head fell.

WAGAH-ATTARI BORDER CEREMONY:

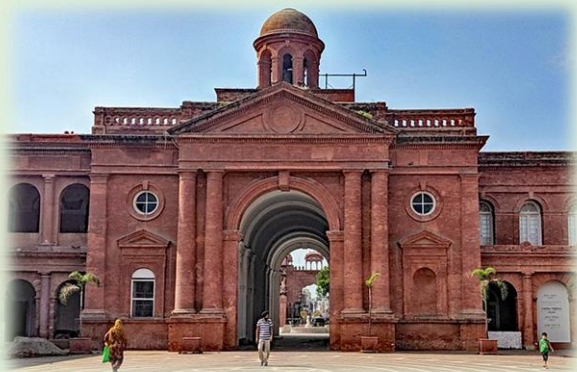

The lowering of the flags ceremony at the Attari-Wagah border is a daily military practice that the security forces of India and Pakistan have jointly followed since 1959.

BABA ATAL TOWER:

This octagonal, nine-storeyed tower located south of the Golden temple, represents the nine years of the life of Atal Rai, son of the sixth Guru Hargobindji. The inner walls are decorated with frescoes on the life of Guru Nanak. The Adi Granth is enshrined within.

PARTITION MUSEUM:

The museum aims to become the central repository of stories, materials, and documents related to the post-partition riots that followed the division of British India into two independent countries: India and Pakistan.

KHALSA COLLEGE, AMRITSAR:

The Khalsa College, established way back in 1892, is a historic educational institution in the northern Indian city of Amritsar.

THE MALL OF AMRITSAR:

Those interested in shopping, can visit this amazing mall, which is just 1.5 kms away from our Homestay
